

Rommel's Black Box: Trilogy of Michael McKey Ross P.I. - Europe (Paperback)

By Rich Scholer

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Field Marshall Irwin Rommel's most revered treasure was a Black Box given to him by the Adolf Hitler. In part the box contained a special Walther PPK; an ivory handled German officer's dagger, and solid gold Knight of the Knights Iron Cross. Rommel, known as The Desert Fox, added to the box 300 of the largest diamonds to be found anywhere on the continent of Africa. This treasure was only one part of an array of spoils seized, by the Germans during the African Campaign segment of WW II. The theme of the story centers on this treasure and the surreptitious relationship that existed between the Field Marshall and a United States Army Air Corp General who was in charge of the European-African-Middle Eastern Theater of operations. The treasure that was flown by a USAAC B-17 bomber from Tunisia, off the north-east coast of Africa, never made it to its pre-determined designation, Corsica. The box changed hands a few times and caused many deaths before coming to its half century resting place on the island of Sardinia...
