Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Men in the Church: An Address Delivered Before the Synod of Pennsylvania at the First Presbyterian Church, York, Penn a Oct, 28, 1909 In discussing the subject of the relation of men to the church, it should be borne in mind that in different churches different conditions prevail, and that while in some the conditions are good, yet generally men are not in the church in large numbers and many of those who are therein are far from living the life and exerting the influence they should. I do not propose this evening to dwell at length upon the question, Why men do not go to church? except so far as the answer thereto relates to the character and conduct of the men who are already there. Possibly I can find no better text for my discourse than that which I incorporated in the report made by me as Chairman of the Standing Committee on the Brotherhood to the last General Assembly. It was the definition of the Brotherhood given by Rev. Maitland Alexander, D.D., at one of the popular meetings, and is as follows: The idea of the Brotherhood is to arouse the conscience and to stimulate men to perform the duties and fulfill the vows which they voluntarily took upon themselves when they united with the church.
