Lutze goes on to say: What has become of this paragraph We search the Organon from beginning to end without finding it. Here is the explanation. Hahnemann laid the new discovery, which he had kept secret heretofore, before the meeting of homoeopathic physicians of the 10th of August 1833. Their number was as yet small, but instead of meeting with open hearts he found stubborn minds, who, instead of accepting the blissful truth, assailed it with all sorts of persecutions, comparing it to the mixtures of allopathic practitioners and persuading Hahnemann to abandon the publication of this discovery and to allow one of his friends to suppress the paragraph which had been printed. He proceeds to say that iEgidi was shamefully abused and that he preferred to remain silent, rather than expose himself to abuse and assaults. lie adds: I do not know the persons who have perpetrated this robbery; most of them may be in their graves. The time for requital has come; the hitherto suppressed discovery rises like a phoenix from its ashes and the name of its author, Julius-Egidi shall be snatched from oblivion. Three or four years ago the discoverer first acquainted me with the combination of remedies. Our excellent Boenninghausen has informed me orally that he has obtained equally fortunate results, etc. It will be seen that Mr. Lutze defends his use of combined drugs by the testimony of Drs. Egidi and von Boenning hausen--strong names certainly. But it so...
