Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Modern American Spiritualism: A Twenty Years Record of the Communion Between Earth and the World of Spirits As these pages seem to imply by their title certain specialties both in regard to time and place, whilst the subject of Spiritualism, or the record of man s spiritual experiences is one which must be commensurate with the physical history of humanity upon this globe, they require a few words of explanation touching the aim and scope of the subject which the author designs to embrace in this work. The entire history of the race, when recorded in accurate detail and fidelity to fact, ever has, and ever will be found, marked with the shadowy outline of a second world of existence, supersensuous to that of mortality. On the walls of our earthly dwelling-places ever will be seen a writing inscribed by a part of a mans hand, the form whereof is dimly visible, the full proportions of which no human eye may scan. And these mystic writings are discovered everywhere; they are traced in our holy places, and meet us on the thresholds of our habitations. They are seen in our very city streets, and the stones prate of their whereabouts. Sometimes we label them religion, at others denounce them by the weird name of magic, witchcraft, or sorcery; in a word, we variously denominate them, as time, prejudice, or custom suggests, under all the different titles which are included in the generic synonym of supernaturalism; but deem of them as we will, they include a set of experiences, occult and incomprehensible though they be, as irresistible and inevitable in time and space as the more...
