Summary: Title: 57th BRCC Presidents' Luncheon Is 'Who's Who in Bay Ridge' Success Author: Harold Egel Publisher: Brooklyn Daily Eagle Date: 2/16/2009 It was a huge turnout of "Who's Who in Bay Ridge" at the stellar 57th Annual Bay Ridge Community Council's Luncheon, with a parade of praise for the Council founded in 1951. Presiding over the invitation-only event which honors heads of the Council's 100-plus member organizations was President Arlene Keating. Handling arrangements was Executive Secretary Gloria Melnick. "Our neighborhoods are the keys to New York City," said Sen. Schumer at the Bay Ridge Manor on Saturday. "Bay Ridge personifies what our neighborhoods are like, for its 156 years. It is one of the great neighborhoods of the city and everyone knows it." Noting the council's long history, Schumer said: "For all the years I've been in public life since 1974, Bay Ridge has always stood out for the neighborhood you've fought for through thick and thin. To everybody who kept Bay Ridge the beautiful, wonderful place that it is, served by all its elected officials, I make a toast to 100 more...
