And it isnt just by her mothers creep of a boyfriend or one of her many employers. Instead, she is certain it something else--someone else. However, in a life with college classes and alcoholic mother to look after, Emilia doesnt have time to explore her suspicions. She would much rather think about her new job at Iram Manor, and more importantly--its mysterious and alluring owner. After a lifetime of isolation and trapped in a disfigured body Kasper Zafar thought he knew pain. Confining himself to his work as an architect and the love of his music, he never expects the beautiful Emilia Ward to enter his life. Young and naive, his new housekeeper does not flinch at the sight of him, and is even so bold as to call him her friend. Determined to teach her in all worldly things, the opposites grow closer and the role of student and teacher and interchange. Yet Emilias life outside the manor is not a happy one, and when Kaspers attempt to watch over her fails, both will discover than love may be the most painful thing of all. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
