For example, 1. 2 billion supports Af-ghan reconstruction efforts, security efforts, and democracy building. More than 5. 7 billion provides assistance to countries around the world who have joined us in the war on terrorism. And 3. 5 billion indirectly supports the war on terrorism by strengthening our ability to respond to emergencies and conflict situations. Fi-nally, 190 million is aimed at expanding democracy in the greater Middle East, which is crucial if we are ever to attack successfully the motivation to terrorism. Mr. Chairman, two of the greatest challenges confronting us today are the reconstruction of Iraq and Afghanistan, and let me first turn to Iraq. The Coalition Provisional Authority and the Iraqi Governing Council have made great strides in the areas of security, economic stability, and growth, as well as in democratization. Iraqi security forces now comprise more...
