John Bogle, Frontline The average investor earned just 3.79 while a simple non-advisor index fund earned 11 over time. QAIB Ultimately, a passive index fund managed by a not-for-profit investment management organization represents the combination most likely to satisfy investor aspirations. David Swenson, Yale endowments Warren Buffett knows that Wall Street only appears to be the place to make money. He works in Omaha and said: The market is a way to transfer money from the impatient to the patient. Wall Street changes it s outfit every season but nothing has really changed. Wall Street exists to make its owners rich. I have been in the financial services business for over 20 years. We make it appear that you investors can make a lot of money by using special charts or doing in-depth analysis. It appears that if you follow the advice of people who appear smart, you can become wealthy very quickly....
