Neopoiesis Press, LLC, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 214 x 136 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.VICTORIA FOTIOS is a poet and author who currently divides her time between London and her family in Hampshire. She was Online Poet of the Year 2008 and has been published collaboratively, most recently in Candy by NeoPoesis Press (2009). Sunday Morning Spiders is her first poetry collection. From the Introduction There is a gentle revelation that comes with the gift of another's carefully crafted vision; with these poems, there is not a sense of the hypocrisy of a vicarious experience, there is a sense of shared consequence. Her words draw us into a world where a certain shaping of the imagination is required to enter the portal. - Amanda Joy, author of Not Enough to Fold Reviews When I first came across Victoria Fotios poetry, I knew I had found a poet I would read and enjoy for many years. Her very English slightly off-centre poetry reminds me of Larkin at his best. Pegs is and always will be one of my favourite ever poems. This is a collection not to be missed. - Si Philbrook, poet, published in various journals including Poetry Monthly (UK) A beautiful insight into a life that is conveyed with breathtaking poignancy. The secret moments, emotions and scenes that are weaved throughout this collection have an intimacy that is compelling. Refreshing honesty and imagery that effortlessly transports the reader into another's life. Victoria Fotios paints pictures with her words. - Kiersty Boon, author of Walking On Chalk and The Poet Busker.
