Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Navy as a Special Field for Medical Work The attention of medical practitioners, more particularly those who have recently graduated in medicine, is cordially and earnestly invited to the Navy for consideration as a special field for medical work. This is the age for specialization in medicine, and one when all persons of the medical profession are endeavoring to perfect themselves in some special branch of medicine upon which they have decided as their chosen life work. Any military service is a special field of medical and sanitary practice, the conditions existing therein determining the essential differences between it and civil practice. It must be remembered, therefore, that the medical officer of the Navy is a specialist; that Navy medical work is a special branch of medical and sanitary practice and must be viewed as one among the many other special fields of medicine, as eye, ear, neurology, hygiene, etc.; and that the practitioner who takes up this line of work must likewise be specially trained as is the Specialist in another branch. It...
