SKILLS FOR EMPLOYABILITY: PART 1: PRE-EMPLOYMENT (PAPERBACK)

Christal Publishing, United Kingdom, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 136 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Further titles in the new Lifelong Learning: Personal Effectiveness Guides by Rosalie Marsh, which draw from her extensive skills industrial experience in sales management, and work-based learning in adult and further education. It is a step in the personal and professional development journey where development of the whole person is at the heart of Marsh s ethos. Currently there are approx. 1 million people in the UK who are Not in Employment, Education, or Training (NEETS). In addition, there are adults and young people who are pre-employment, in employment and looking to enhance their careers or are between jobs. Many do not have the life skills and /or a basic understanding of what is required to become and stay employed and enhance their future. This book - one of a series - will provide essential information to fill the gaps identified through research and enhance the prospects of a successful interview. In two parts, Skills for Employability - designed to be read in bite-sized chunks - will focus on some of the skills you need in order to impress an employer, stand out from the rest, become employed, and enhance your future. Part One looks at the Pre-Employment skills needed. Part Two looks at what you need to know when you move into employment. Features of Skills for Employability Part One. Each chapter details the Learning Outcomes and relevance to other qualifications such as Functional Skills. At the end of each topic, there will be a series of short practical activities for self assessment for learners to see how far they have travelled in gaining knowledge and understandin. In turn this will add to a sense of...
